Alex,

First of all, congratulations! That is wonderful news for you so allow Suzanne and I to take you to lunch to congratulate you.

We would be delighted to meet Lauren so please connect us with her. We like to meet prospective board members first before we invite them to join the board so we know it's a good fit for all concerned. And it goes without saying that we think The Broad is a very important stakeholder in our BID.

We wish you wonderful holidays and look forward to seeing you early in the New Year.

Best,

Carol

Hi Carol and Suzanne—

I wanted to share with you that I have given notice at The Broad and am taking a position as the Deputy Director of the Main Museum (I'm not going far!).

There is so much to say about what a pleasure it has been to work with you both, and I'm sure we will continue to do so in my new position. But for now, I was wanting to touch base logistically about my position on the DCBID board. The Broad would like to retain the seat and I am wondering if I can connect you with my colleague Lauren Girard who will be stepping into my position and could take over my seat on the board.

Please let me know if okay to connect you with Lauren. I plan to send a note to the full DCBID board before the Jan 11 meeting.

Thank you,
Alex
